Empowering Youth Transforming Futures

ہنری میری پہچان ہے

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN BBSHRRDB

The Benazir Bhutto Shaheed Human Resource, Research & Development Board was established with a clear and resolute vision: to empower the youth of Sindh with the skills, opportunities, and confidence needed to lead Pakistan into a more prosperous and progressive future. Our mission goes beyond training, it is about transforming human potential into practical capability, economic resilience, and long term national value.

In a world where technology, industry, and labor markets are evolving rapidly, the Board recognizes that the greatest asset of Sindh is its people. Our vision is to cultivate a skilled workforce that is not only job-ready but future-ready, equipped with modern competencies, adaptable mindsets, and the ability to contribute meaningfully both in local industries and the global economy.

We are committed to expanding high-quality vocational and technical training across all districts of Sindh, ensuring accessibility for every youth, especially those from underserved and remote areas. Our goal is to remove the barriers of unemployment and socio-economic insecurity by providing pathways toward sustainable livelihoods, entrepreneurship, and professional growth.

At the heart of our vision lies inclusivity, transparency, and excellence. We strive to uphold the legacy of Shaheed Mohtarma Benazir Bhutto by enabling youth to rise with dignity, purpose, and opportunity. Through our ongoing reforms, monitoring mechanisms, and commitment to quality, BBSHRRDB is shaping a skilled Sindh that is economically vibrant, socially empowered, and globally competitive.

The Board is actively working toward establishing a culture of accountability, transparency, and continuous improvement. Through monitoring systems, data-driven decisions, and performance-based evaluations, we are ensuring that every investment made in youth development translates into tangible results. This approach not only strengthens our institution but also builds trust among trainees, communities, and our development partners.

Our vision is not limited to skill development alone; it extends to the holistic empowerment of youth. We believe that the young people of Sindh must be empowered to dream, to explore, and to build their own success stories. By fostering confidence, discipline, leadership qualities, and ethical values, we aim to prepare a generation that contributes positively to society and drives economic stability within Sindh and beyond.

The journey ahead is ambitious, but it is one we embrace with conviction. With the collective support of our stakeholders, partners, and communities, the Board is determined to build a skilled Sindh, one where every young person is empowered with the tools to succeed, contribute, and transform their future.

At BBSHRRDB, we firmly believe that human capital is the foundation of sustainable socio-economic growth. With this vision, our team has worked tirelessly to expand access to skill training across the province, enhance institutional capacity, and strengthen partnerships with national and international organizations.
